“The Kaiser” joins “Napoleon” in the final

Non chance for Jayson Shaw in semi-final match with Ralf Souquet

Saturday, 01 October 2011: Ralf Souquet (GER) won the second semi-final match against Jayson Shaw (SCO) clearly with 8:2.

The “Kaiser” never showed any mercy for his Scottish opponent. Being 4:0 in front, Souquet even managed to make Shaw commit three consecutive fouls which means a loss of rack. That is a real punishment for any pool player. In the 7th rack when Souquet was up 6:0, he was forced by Shaw to commit a foul and Shaw was able to win a rack and open his account. He even managed to win another rack and turned the scoreboard to 6:2 because Souquet played a push-out and committed another foul after Shaw handed the shot back to him. But Souquet was not impressed at all. He finished the match 8:2 by winning two more racks, playing impressively strong. It will be interesting in the final match to see how Chamat will try to stop Souquet from taking his third Euro-Tour title this year...
