Souquet wins again!

“The Kaiser” left no doubt he wanted that title

Saturday, 01 October 2011: In a final match that was dominated by one player only, Ralf Souquet (GER) subdued Marcus Chamat (SWE) with 8:2.

Like in the whole tournament, Souquet's victory was never really in danger. He played rock solid and left no doubt to anyone that he really wanted that title. The early stage of the match was determined by safety play from both players. Chamat had to struggle from the very beginning to keep pace with “The Kaiser”. Souquet took a quick 3:0 lead over Chamat. Then, Chamat seemed to play the better safeties for a while and that made him win two racks in a row, making the score 3:2 for Souquet. From then on, it was only Souquet pushing the button for “win” on the score computer. The 10th and final rack summed up what had happened before. Both players were engaged in an intensive safety battle but Chamat scratched while attempting to pocket the 2-ball. He did not need to ask Souquet a second time whether he wanted to win the title. Souquet took the match and the title of the Dynamic Hungary Open Euro-Tour 2011. It is Souquet's third win this year on the Euro-Tour after Paris and Treviso and he is now leading the Euro-Tour overall rankings.

“I don't know whether I'm on the summit of my career”, said a modest Souquet in an interview after the final match. “I am happy with my achievements these days but I am a perfectionist. I always try to improve”. “At 42 years of age, I am looking forward for a few more good years.” “This tournament, I had one match that was close. It went hill-hill. All other matches, I really dominated my opponent so I think it was ok for me to win it”. It was definitely ok, Kaiser...!

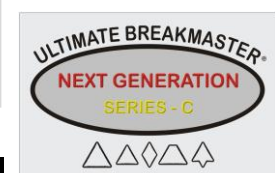

Later this month, Ralf Souquet will be inducted into the BCA's Hall of Fame.

From tomorrow on, the Beassy™ 9-Ball Classic tournament will start. It is the second event of the Billiard Festival week in Eger, Hungary.

Furthermore, the Beassy™ Luxury Cues will be released. More information to follow.
